Howdy Pard and Pardettes!

YEEEEEEE HAWWWWW!!! Winter is finally looking like it may be ending!! I don't know about you but my trigger finger is starting to twitch faster than a prairie dog's tail! I haven't been out to the range yet but I'll probably be making a trip soon to see if we have any damage from this god-awful winter and all the heavy snow and rain!

Does Wild Bunch have fans out there?

So we had two stages of wild bunch during the side match at the annual shoot last year. The shooters seemed to have a good time and I heard lots of compliments and a few shooters asking why we don't have a regular WB match. SO.....to all the members out there...this is your club. Who wants Wild Bunch? Would you be interested if we held a four to six stage WB match on the Saturday prior to our normal Sunday shoot a few times per year? I'm trying to get an idea how many would come. Time is too precious if the shooters just aren't there. Give me a shout if you are interested. Give me a BIGGER shout if you want to help run those shoots.

Range News

We really appreciate all the patronage from our shooters last year. It's helped a lot to have the money to upgrade and repair fences and stages. I'm also very appreciative of our range help. We can't do it without our range wranglers and shooter support. That's all that keeps us going!
